

Name: _____

Community Connections

Calvin Ruck was always looking for ways to help people. He built a baseball field, a daycare, and a medical centre. What's one thing you would add to your community? Draw a picture and explain why this would help people in your community.

